New public school construction projects will receive a 10% discount. Renovations, alterations, and modification will be charged regular fees.

Other Commercial/Public Access Building Permits and Fees

1. Temporary Certificate of Occupancy

$500.00

If circumstances warrant, the Fire Marshal may grant limited use of a structure or portion of a building under permit, provided the area has been inspected and found to be in compliance with the adopted Fire and Building Codes. A written request (accompanied by a floor plan drawing) must be submitted by the contractor or the owner's representative indicating the area of the building requested to be occupied. All required fire protection systems, as indicated on the original building permit, must be fully operational and tested. This fee must accompany the written request. This TCO is valid for 90 days, and a final Certificate of Occupancy must be obtained within this 90 day period.

2. Temporary Structure Permits

400 - 750 sq. ft. = $75.00

More than 750 sq. ft. = $75.00 + $.025 sq. ft.

This fee is for registration of temporary structures (tents, air supported structures, canopies, construction trailers, retail fireworks stands, etc.). An inspection of the structure is also required to ensure compliance with the adopted Fire Code requirements. An additional Fire/Safety Inspection fee will be assessed for the inspection (refer to fee below). Valid for up to 365 days (1 yr.).

3. Modular/Mobile Structure Installation Permit

$520.00

This fee is for the installation of a mobile or modular structure that will be used for commercial or public access purposes. It will include the plan review of the structure and inspection after installation to ensure the structure meets the intent of the adopted Fire Code. This is for mobile/modular structures that will be used for greater than 365 days (1 yr.).

Commercial-Residential Permit Fees (Apartments, Town Homes, Condominiums, Etc.)

It may be difficult to calculate total permit fees. It is best to call the Code Enforcement section to obtain the exact permit fee when scheduling an appointment to submit plans. All permit fees paid are non-refundable, so accuracy is critical!

The total fee for commercial-residential building permits is made up from three separate fees. The plan review fee, the building permit & inspection fee, and the final inspection and Certificate of Occupancy fee. Each building to be constructed must have a separate building permit and Certificate of Occupancy. All permitting fees shall be paid at the time plans are submitted for review. Fee calculations use the commercial/public access fee schedule.

1. Plans Review Fee

This fee is for the review of submitted building plans for comparison against the adopted Building and Fire Codes to ensure compliance with the fire protection aspects of the proposed building. The process includes documentation and review comments where required. All buildings of a single floorplan design will be charged a single plan review fee. Each group of buildings with different floor plan designs will be charged a single plan review fee per group.

Example: 14 buildings of Type 1 floor plan – 1 plan review fee, 14 building permit/Inspection fees, and 14 final inspection & C of O fees.
10 buildings of Type 2 floor plan – 1 plan review fee, 10 building permit/Inspection fees, and 10 final inspection & C of O fees.
