Job Summary:

The Atascosa Area Advocates Public Defender's Office is seeking entry-level and experienced Assistant Public Defenders, to represent those defendants whom the court has found to be eligible for a court appointed attorney in the Counties of Atascosa, Frio, Karnes, and Wilson, located near San Antonio, Texas. This position provides quality legal defense to indigent individuals charged with misdemeanor, juvenile, and felony criminal offenses. This position offers excellent training, both within the office and through external organizations. Caseloads are limited pursuant to effective representation guidelines established by the Texas Indigent Defense Commission. The office uses a team-based approach, which provides intensive mentoring and significant experience with the full range of cases handled by the office and the opportunity for increased responsibility with increased experience.

Third-year law students, those studying for the bar, and those awaiting bar results will be considered. Entry-level Assistant Public Defenders will have primary responsibility, with supervision, to handle misdemeanor caseloads. Additional responsibilities will include assisting in felony trial preparation and trials and consulting with felony Clients and witnesses. Experienced Assistant Public Defenders will have primary responsibility for felony caseloads. Both positions will also include some juvenile work.

This is an exciting opportunity to be a part of a holistic, client-centered public defender's office and to make a difference in clients' lives and in the criminal justice system. The office consists of a team of 15 felony and misdemeanor Assistant Public Defenders who work together as energetic and enthusiastic advocates for indigent defendants.
