Official Atascosa County Joint City of Jourdanton Election Ballot Correction Press Release:

On the first day of early voting, the Atascosa County Elections Administrator, with the assistance of several attentive voters, identified a ballot style issue affecting a portion of Precinct 13 in the City of Jourdanton Election. Upon identifying the issue, the Atascosa County Elections Administrator immediately reviewed the data, identified the discrepancy, and implemented the necessary corrections. The ballot programming issue was resolved, and voters in that portion of Precinct 13 began receiving the correct City of Jourdanton Election ballot. Atascosa County Elections Administrator has reported the matter to the Texas Secretary of State's Office. Atascosa County will continue working with the Secretary of State's Office and the City of Jourdanton regarding this matter.

Atascosa County remains committed to protecting the integrity of the electoral process. Our Elections team will continue monitoring our systems throughout the election to help ensure every eligible voter is provided the appropriate ballot and has the opportunity to cast their vote. We also want to thank the voters who brought this issue to our attention. Their willingness to speak up helped us identify and correct the issue. However, all voters need to remember to take the time to ASK BEFORE YOU CAST!

✓ REVIEW YOUR BALLOT — ASK BEFORE YOU CAST!

Before casting your ballot, take your time and make sure your ballot and selections are correct. If you need assistance, ask before you cast! If there is a concern with your ballot, ask for the Elections Administrator BEFORE you cast your vote.
